

FILES ASSESSMENT ROLL ON BIG SEWER

New Mishawaka Avenue Trunk Line Completed—Engineer Moore Reports Studebaker's Assessment at $10,000.

City Engineer Moore Tuesday night filed with the board of works the assessment roll on the Mishawaka av. trunk sewer, one of the largest contracts of the year. The sewer has been completed and is now awaiting acceptance. It was laid by the DePaeppe and Cousens Co., costing $46,946.86. The assessment against the Studebakers for this sewer is over $10,000, while the park board will be forced to pay out about $3,000 for Pottawatomie park.

Other assessment rolls filed by the engineer were: Yukon av. pipe sewer, Tenth st. grade, curb and walk, Donald st. pipe sewer, Wilbur st. cement walk and curb, Indiana av. pipe sewer.

The vacation of a part of the proposed William st. was confirmed as was the Pennsylvania av. assessment roll for the pavement. The resolution on the grading of Dubuque av. was affirmed. The resolution on the Milton av. pipe sewer was deferred.

The contract for the placing of water taps on Cottage Grove av. was awarded to William H. Burke. The re-surfacing of Marion st. was awarded to Hobbs and Bosch for $1,844.18. Stewart-Sheetz Co. was awarded a partial estimate of $4,512.11.

Bids for water connections on Cottage Grove av. and the resurfacing of Marion st. pavement were opened at the Tuesday morning meeting of the board of works. The bids were turned over to City Engineer Moore for tabulation.

TWO CLASSES NOMINATE

Juniors and Sophomores Name Candidates for Office.

Two classes nominated officers at the high school yesterday. The junior and sophomore classes were the ones to name the men they would have govern them for the coming year. Elections will probably be held next week.

Junior nominations were: President, Wallace Davis; George Miller and Franklin Schurtz; vice-president, Geneva Cleveland and Arva Yeagley; secretary, Edith Emmons, Catherine Guthrie and Blanche Decker; treasurer, Agnes White, M. Rossin and Eleanor Galk; marshal, Ray Engdahl, Coleman Steis and Robert Minkler.

The sophomores nominated Vernon Smith, William Grimm, Charles Hill, Henry Lippincott and Henry Chillas for president; Geraldine Robertson, Henry Chillas, Elsie Lippincott and Charles Butterworth for vice-president; Joseph Hansel, Russell Stellner, Elton Miltner, James Krueberger and Eleanor Stephenson for treasurer; Eleanor Stephenson, Frances Salinger, Geraldine Robertson, May Johnson, and Marie Whitcomb for secretary; Ethel Phelan, Russell Nurser, Katherine Cole, Dorothy Pershing and Charles Zessinger for reporters and Miss Stone, Mr. Leffler, Mr. Wilson, Miss Chubar, Miss Hood, Miss Goodman, Mr. Berry and Mr. Hostetler for sponsors.

MERCHANTS TO DECORATE

American Flag to Fly During Aerial Circus.

While there will be no elaborate attempts at the decoration of store fronts and business houses the next two days, during the aerial circus, it is suggested that every business house display the American flag as prominently as possible. The booster committee having charge of the affair has worked day and night to make this one big success. With good weather everything points to record breaking crowds from out of town. As a compliment to the visitors and the benefit to be derived from attractive places of business, every downtown mercantile establishment, hotel and office should make an elaborate display of Old Glory. As all of the big events will occur in or over the heart of the business district, the visiting crowds will naturally concentrate on the principal downtown streets and the more attractive they can be made the better impression will be made on those who come to South Bend those two gala days.

TO TALK MINSTREL SHOW

Young Men of Chamber of Commerce to Meet Tonight.

Donald Livengood, chairman of the committee in charge of the minstrel to be given by the Young Men's Chamber of Commerce, Monday, has called a meeting for tonight at the Oliver hotel. Several young men prominent in amateur theatrical circles will attend and preliminary arrangements for the minstrel will be made at that time. The date of the performance or performances, the time of rehearsals, the "business" of the show and other things will be discussed. The minstrel proposition was taken up at a meeting of the junior Chamber of Commerce soon after its organization, but nothing definite has been done until this time.

COURT RESTRAINS COHEN FROM SELLING PROPERTY

An order restraining Harry Cohen, proprietor of the Reliable and defendant in a divorce suit filed by his wife, Anna Cohen, Monday from disposing of any of his property was issued by Acting Judge C. P. Drummond in the circuit court Tuesday. Mrs. Cohen sues for $7,000 alimony and $300 yearly for the support of a five-year-old child in her complaint for divorce.

NIX ON THE WAR TALK

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—New Yorkers are becoming accustomed at news stands in hotel lobbies, barber shops and other public places to see this laconic sign:

"Nix on the war talk." In the financial district the same sentiment is treated in the more dignified manner. In a well-known banking house on Wall st. the following legend is posted conspicuously: "You are requested kindly to abstain from all discussions about the war."

Theaters

AT THE DELITE.

Today's picture at the Delite features the romantic and stirring Russian war drama entitled, "The Romany Spy." This picture was taken by the Pathe players. It is in three parts and tells a thrilling story of a woman's fight for love and country. Three other interesting pictures will be shown on the bill, and a visit to the Delite, the newly remodeled and rebuilt picture house on S. Michigan st., will be found well worth while.

AT THE COLONIAL.

The Colonial program today includes a Vitagraph two-reel drama entitled "The Toll," featuring those two splendid players, Jimmie Morrison and Dorothy Kelly. In addition to this feature a Selig comedy drama written upon new and original lines and produced with all the care and elaborateness that the Selig studio is capable of, will be found in the comedy drama "If at First You Don't Succeed."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Beginning Thursday at the Majestic "Fiddle Up" Reese, an eccentric comedian who sings songs and plays all sorts of violin selections, will put finger into the bill and life into the audiences with his original specialties. Dorothy Benton, a charming little cabaret singer from Chicago, will introduce new character songs with tune changes and up-to-the-minute musical comedy effects. Earl and Jennings, singing, talking and dancing comedians, will offer their sparkling program of snappy talk, comical ballads and eccentric dances. The pictures for today are "Buddy's Downfall," a laughable Vitagraph comedy; "A Traitor to His Country," a patriotic Lubin drama, and a roving comedy from the Biograph studio entitled, "The Boiler Maker's Day of Rest."

AT THE ORPHEUM.

A versatile quartet of instrumentalists, The Expedition Four, will headline the Orpheum bill beginning Thursday. Their selections range from the popular to the operatic. They give special attention to the harmony and solos and make a number of costume changes. The act is arranged with plenty of comedy and is unusually amusing for a musical number. Mlle. Teshow has an European novelty introducing trained cats, who

Applying This Paste Actually Removes Hairs

(Beauty Notes)

Merely applying an inexpensive paste to a hairy surface, say beauty specialists, will dissolve the hairs. This paste is made by mixing a little water with some powdered delatone; after about two minutes it is rubbed off and the skin washed. This simple method not only removes every trace of hair, but leaves the skin free from blemish. To insure success with this treatment, be careful to get real delatone.

will perform a series of amusing stunts. Carson and Willard have a singing and talking act full of patriotism and fun. Their good natured parodies on the timely war topics, original melodies and comedy chatter will be found unusually entertaining. The Charmion Trio in "An Organ Grinder's Troubles" will give classical and character songs and selections. Beeman and Anderson in a comedy skating act, will amuse, and Keystone comedy pictures will complete the bill.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS.

Today will be the last opportunity to see the beautiful five reel comedy "Brewster's Millions" at the Oliver theatre. The picture has a laugh in nearly every foot of film and is enjoyable from start to finish. Performances are given at 1:45, 3:30, 7:30 and 9:00. Starting tomorrow "The Littlest Rebel" Edward Peple's war drama in six parts will be presented for four days with continuous performances starting at eleven o'clock in the morning, each performance lasting about an hour and a half. The cast which is a strong one is headed by that sterling actor E. K. Lincoln. The scenes are those of the picturesque and sunny southland with all their natural beauty. The story concerns two families of the south at the time of the Civil war, one family joining the southern army and the other the northern forces. Many thrilling and exciting incidents occur to hold the attention of the audience. The picture only recently had a long run at the Studebaker theatre, Chicago.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The bookings for the Auditorium today are "The White Mouse" a Selig drama of the snows in two reels featuring Essie Eytton. It tells a thrilling and sensational story of the great northwest that is both interesting and entertaining. "Seven Sealed Orders" an Essanay thrilling mystery drama in two parts showing how a young broker was repaid for following seven mysterious orders. The piece is adapted from Munsey magazines and is interpreted by a strong cast including Richard Travers. "Boasted Bay" Tomorrow will be seen "Rainy the Lion Killer" a two reel Vitagraph with Sidney Drew and strong company. "The Counterfeit Plot" a Kalem drama. "The Terrible Lesson" a Biograph picture. "The Kid's Nap" a Lubin comedy by Romaine Fielding and the Pathe Daily News with late war reports of interest.

SURPRISE THEATER.

The pictures at the Surprise theater today will include a two-reel majestic story, entitled "The Second Mrs. Roebuck." The offering is taken from a story by W. Carey Wonderley. H. A. Walsh, Blanche Sweet, Mary Alden and Wallace Reid are in the cast. The story is new in so many details that it proves very entertaining. The proposal by dictating a letter to the girl was a clever piece of business.

"The Storm Bird" is a Powers drama, with Ray Gallagher and Edna Maison. Stark and Jack find the happiness that had long been denied them. Jack is the mate of the "Storm Bird." He defends the cabin boy against the brutality of the drunken captain. Later he fights the captain when the latter attempts to force his attentions on Jack's sweetheart. It is the cabin boy who prevents the captain carrying out a fiendish revenge upon Jack and his girl.

Tomorrow's pictures will include a two-reel Rex drama called "For the Secret Service," in which Robert Leonard appears as a young inventor. The invention itself is an interesting one. It is an ingenious device for detecting happenings miles away and for exploding gasoline at a distance. The machine itself is used in getting the hero and heroine out of a serious predicament at the close. This story is well constructed and has numerous exciting moments. Ella Hall plays the part of a girl spy in a government office and it is through her efforts that the hero is saved from the conspirators.

"The Mutual Weekly" will be an attraction tomorrow with its late war news.

MRS. BELMONT IN LONDON

Undergoes Exciting Trip From Switzerland Before Safe.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Mrs. Perry Belmont reached London after a rather exciting trip from Switzerland where she had been held up since the outbreak of the war. From Thurn, where she spent most of August, Mrs. Belmont went to Geneva and there took passage on a special train which started for Paris, Sept. 1.

W. A. Clark of New York, Judge Scudder of New York and George Ulrich, a banker of Hartford, were Mrs. Belmont's co-travelers. When Mrs. Belmont reached the frontier she spoke German jokingly in the presence of French soldiers and she was immediately arrested as a spy. After proving she was an American she was released.

Don't Let a Cold Settle on Your Lungs

If you have a persistent cough or cold, take warning before it is too late. Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many persons who had serious lung trouble. Read of this case:

"Gentlemen:—During the winter of 1911 I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. Eckman's Alternative was recommended to me and I commenced using it as a last resort. The first bottle had really started me on the road to recovery by loosening the mucus and making me expectorate freely. After using the medicine for some time, my cough ceased. I gained flesh and today, I am a well man." (Abbreviated)
